TSYS Acquiring Solutions Sponsors W.net

Las Vegas and Tempe, Ariz., April 17, 2007 — TSYS Acquiring SolutionsSM, the pre-eminent supplier of acquiring solutions, related systems and integrated support services to the acquiring industry, today announced, at the Electronic Transactions Association (ETA) Annual Meeting and Expo, a sponsorship for Women Networking in Electronic Transactions (W.net), a forum for professional women in the electronic transactions industry.

The $25,000 corporate sponsorship provides W.net with the financial means to offer numerous programs such as on-going professional education, leadership development, mentoring and networking opportunities. It also supports the advancement of women in the electronic transactions industry.

“It’s vital to support women in the electronic transactions industry,” said Robert J. Philbin, president of TSYS Acquiring Solutions. “Being a W.net corporate sponsor underscores our commitment to grow and develop women, not only here at TSYS Acquiring, but throughout the industry.”

“W.net is pleased to have TSYS Acquiring Solutions as a corporate sponsor and we are grateful for their support,” said Holli Targan, president of W.net.
